Hiking shoes are recommended for the hikes on this tour. We suggest hiking boots or trail shoes with good traction. You may also find moisture-wicking clothing or a backpack useful, but not required.

Welcome to Liguria

Your guides will greet you at the Genoa Brignole train station and whisk you into the coastal mountains high above the city. Our first ride offers Mediterranean views right off the bat as we pedal along a ridge, then descend into the pastel fishing village of Camogli. Tackle the final climb over to Santa Margherita where we'll share a casual lunch by the sea. Opt to ride over to the picturesque harbor of Portofino, or check directly into our hotel. After lunch at Marco's restaurant, ferry back to the hotel or challenge yourself with a hike back through the Parco Naturale di Portofino. Spend the afternoon relaxing on the beach or exploring Santa Margherita. We'll join the ranks of pilgrims, enjoying the views before a long descent back to the coast in Levanto. Savor organic olive oil and produce grown onsite during lunch at an organic farm. This afternoon, take advantage of the local train and trail network to explore the Cinque Terre villages by foot and rail. Bike and Boat to Portovenere

Today we ride the entire length of the Cinque Terre. Start by pedaling from Bonassola to Levanto on a bike path that's been converted from an old railway tunnel. In Levanto, begin a scenic climb through vineyards and perched pastel villages, reaching a deeply forested ridgeline with views of the towering Apennine mountains. The true reward for this climb is the panoramic road that follows—high above the famous Cinque Terre, your bike is the best seat in the house. Our ride ends in Riomaggiore, the last of the five villages. From here, take a boat that docks right at the doorstep of our final hotel in the fishing village of Portovenere. This evening, toast to our week together and dine above the harbor, stealing one last glimpse of the Cinque Terre's cheerful colors.
