DAY
1

Welcome to the Médoc!

Your guides will greet you at the Bordeaux train station for a transfer to the heart of the famous Médoc wine appellation district. There's no better way to begin our week than with a wine tasting and garden picnic at Château Maucaillou, a prestigious sixth-generation family estate. After a safety review and bike fitting, our first ride takes us along Bordeaux's internationally recognized estates, including Château Mouton Rothschild, Château Lafite Rothschild, and Château Cos d'Estournel. With our palates primed for a week of wine tasting, circle back towards Pauillac and settle into our luxurious hotel. Tonight, we're treated to the first of many memorable dinners together.

Meals: Lunch / Dinner

Destinations: Saint-Julien-Beychevelle, Saint-Estèphe, Pauillac

Accomplished: 19 miles / 32 km, elevation gain: 613 feet / 187 meters

Accommodations: Château Cordeillan-Bages

2

Crossing the Gironde Estuary

Start the day with a dreamy French breakfast before we bid farewell to the left bank of the Gironde estuary. Warm up your legs on a short spin through vineyards heavy with Cabernet Sauvignon grapes and famous château estates. Then board a ferry bound for the right bank and arrive in Blaye, which stands just opposite the river from Pauillac. Back on soil, visit the UNESCO-classified 17th-century Citadel of Blaye and enjoy lunch with a view of the Gironde estuary. Continue cycling into the little-known wine regions of the Côtes de Bourg and round out the afternoon riding into Saint-Laurent-d'Arce. Tonight, our dinner is lovingly prepared at the hotel from garden-fresh produce and ingredients sourced from regional producers. The cherry on top is the domaine's own wine, made in partnership with Château Angelus—known for their Saint-Émilion Premier Grand Crus.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Destinations: Blaye, Bourg, Saint-Laurent-d'Arce, Guîtres, Sainte-Colombe

Accomplished: 22 miles / 40 km, elevation gain: 1,102 feet / 336 meters

Longer option: 32 miles / 53 km, elevation gain: 1,935 feet / 590 meters

Accommodations: Château du Palanquey

3

Exploring Pomerol and Saint-Émilion

Today we'll ride past some of the most important estates in Pomerol and Saint-Émilion—Cheval Blanc, Beau-Séjour Bécot, Pressac, Petrus, Angélu—and taste velvety reds from the Saint-Émilion appellation. After a tasting at one of the region's renowned châteaux, bike a few more miles for lunch in the center of Pomerol. Close the loop with a ride back to our hotel to relax and freshen up. This evening, we return to Saint-Émilion to meet our friend and local wine merchant, Benoît. Browse his shop or stroll the town's charming streets and quaint boutiques, then dine on your own in town or back at the hotel—your guides will gladly recommend their favorite restaurants.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch

Destinations: Pomerol, Bertin, Montagne, Saint-Émilion, Sainte-Colombe

Accomplished: 24 miles / 39 km, elevation gain: 1,056 feet / 322 meters

Accommodations: Château du Palanquey

4

Through the Entre-Deux-Mers and into Les Graves

After tucking into breakfast, set out on the tranquil bike paths that lead us to the Dordogne River. Here, we'll cross into the Entre-Deux-Mers region, known for its crisp white Bordeaux wines. The scenery from the saddle includes lush vineyards under endless blue sky, ruins of medieval abbeys, and classic sun-drenched villages. Following a locally sourced picnic lunch prepared by your guides, we near the vineyards of Paysage Bordelais and arrive at the banks of the Garonne river where our hotel is located. Tonight we'll have the opportunity to taste wines produced directly on-property during dinner at our hotel's bistro.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Destinations: Saint-Émilion, Langoiran, Martillac

Accomplished: 39 miles / 64 km, elevation gain: 1,528 feet / 466 meters

Shorter Option: 26 miles / 42 km, elevation gain: 1,010 feet / 308 meters

Accommodations: Sources de Caudalie

5

Sweet Wine and Bittersweet Farewells

Begin the day with croissants and coffee on the terrace of our hotel, then hop on the bike to reach another stellar wine region—Graves. Pedal through medieval villages that marry French and English architecture en route to Sauternes, the capital of sweet wine. These wines were made to pair with lunch, and we'll do just that at a favorite Sauternes Château where we'll learn how the influence of "noble rot" gives Sauternes its tasty notes of honey, caramel, and tropical fruit. This afternoon, challenge yourself and ride all the way back to the hotel, or take a quick transfer back to indulge in some of the hotel's famous vinotherapy spa treatments. Tonight, it's time to toast our week together: first with a cocktail in the salon, and finally with a two-Michelin-starred dinner overseen by Chef Nicolas Masse. Bon appétit!

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Destinations: Martillac, La Brede, Landiras, Sauternes

Accomplished: 27 miles / 44 km, elevation gain: 1,052 feet / 321 meters

Longer Option: 43 miles / 70 km, elevation gain: 2,024 feet / 617 meters

Accommodations: Sources de Caudalie

6

Au Revoir

After breakfast, enjoy a leisurely stroll around the grounds and through the vineyards, or seize the opportunity for a last spin through Bordeaux's sleepy villages and superior wineries. Then it's back to the city of Bordeaux, where your guides will see you off to your next destination.

Meals: Breakfast

Destinations: Martillac, Bordeaux

Accomplished: 14 miles / 22 km, elevation gain: 525 feet / 116 meters
