DAY
1

From the Capital to the Countryside

Meet your DuVine guides at one of our recommended pre-night hotels in Seville for a transfer to the charming hilltop town of El Gastor. After a bike fitting and safety review, we'll head out on our first ride of the week—a scenic loop around the Zahara-El Gastor Reservoir. Stop in the fairytale village of Zahara de la Sierra for lunch on the terrace of a charming family-owned restaurant, then stroll through town, pausing for photographs at one of the many viewpoints. Back on the bikes, we'll cruise down toward the lake on small roads shaded by eucalyptus trees before closing the loop back in El Gastor. There, we'll hop into a Land Cruiser for a safari-style drive to our luxurious eco-retreat, Finca La Donaira. This award-winning property is like nowhere you've ever stayed: swim in refreshing mountain water, meander the meadows and organic gardens, or visit the stables of La Donaira's Lusitanos, the world's oldest breed of riding horses. Tonight's dinner is a beautiful spread of seasonal ingredients and biodynamic wines from La Donaira's farm and winery.

Our destination is Sentenil de las Bodegas, a fascinating pueblo blanco full of bright-white troglodyte bars, restaurants, and homes built into the town's overhanging cliffs. From there, continue cycling toward the outskirts of Ronda, stopping at our friend's ranch where fighting bulls and Andalusian horses are bred and raised. Explore the cultural and historical significance of these iconic animals, then enjoy a lovely wine-paired picnic lunch. After, opt to ride back or transfer by van. The remainder of the day is yours to spend as you see fit—unwind by the spring-fed pool or indulge in a treatment at the spa. Later, we'll gather for an organic feast in the hotel's beautiful courtyard.

The Pass of the Doves

Our route today winds into the heart of Sierra de Grazalema Natural Park, a striking protected landscape known for its limestone cliffs, deep gorges, and verdant valleys. Leaving El Gastor, we'll ride toward Zahara de la Sierra. Choose to tackle the shorter Gaidovar climb or the legendary Puerto de Las Palomas—the Pass of the Doves—a stunning mountain pass marked by multiple switchbacks and panoramic views over the lake and surrounding peaks. Along the way, well-placed overlooks invite you to rest your legs and soak in the scenery. An exhilarating descent brings us to Grazalema, where we'll refuel with coffee and a sweet treat. Continue cycling on gently rolling roads through pastureland and pine forest to our second luxury hotel, where lunch awaits on the terrace. Spend the afternoon relaxing by the pool or enjoying a well-earned siesta. This evening, wander the charming streets of Ronda, pausing at Puente Nuevo to admire the Tajo Gorge, which plummets toward the Guadalevín River, cleaving the town in two. Dinner is at your leisure—your guides are happy to share their favorite local restaurants.

There, we'll trade bicycles for hiking shoes and set off on a ramble into Dehesa del Generalife, a leafy oasis in the hills above the fabled palace. Our route winds through a diverse Mediterranean landscape of pine trees, olive groves, and holm oaks dotted with ruins dating back to the 13th century. After a picnic lunch prepared by your guides, we'll end our hike right at the Hotel Alhambra Palace, a timeless retreat that blends Moorish design with modern luxury. Settle into your room then make your way to the terrace bar for an aperitivo with gorgeous views of the Sierra Nevada mountains. Whichever route you choose, our destination is the delightfully rustic farm-to-table restaurant owned by our friends Soledad and Sebastián, where we'll see how they grow the produce and bake the bread that accompanies our zero-kilometer lunch.
