Next, climb to the high plateau of the Luberon where we're rewarded with incredible views followed by a well-deserved lunch in the village of Murs. Cruise downhill to the next charming village, Roussillon, which is full of galleries, colorful adornments made by local artists, and astonishing ochre-colored cliffs. Our next ride takes us to Mazan, where you can recharge after your big ride with a seasonal lunch at Maison Areni. One final short climb remains before we arrive at our next hotel and settle in. The Winemaking Mecca of the Vaucluse

After breakfast on the hotel's panoramic terrace, set off on a roller coaster day of riding: we'll tackle a climb up Col de la Madeleine, a pass that makes you feel like you're pedaling among the clouds. Then, pass precious Provençal towns, sun-warmed vineyards, and olive groves on the way to Le Barroux, a Vaucluse village known for its 12th-century castle. The descent into Beaumes-de-Venise is sweet—appropriate for a town best-known for its appellation of sweet wine. Continue spinning north, following a string of French winemaking villages like Vacqueyras and Gigondas. A winery visit sheds more light on the region's viticulture, followed by a wine-paired lunch where we sip some local varieties of Syrah and Grenache while gazing out over the vineyards where they're grown. If you're happily full of wine, opt for a transfer directly back to the hotel, or choose to keep pedaling through the blissful country landscapes. Tonight, we dine together at one of our favorite restaurants close to the hotel.
