Tour By Day

San Juan Island Pre-Tour Package

Welcome to the San Juan Islands! Get settled at Friday Harbor House, a serene and scenic property seated atop a bluff overlooking the marina. Since the hotel is located right in Friday Harbor, spend the afternoon exploring the island at your leisure—perhaps watching boats come and go or enjoying the sunset with a glass of chilled wine and oysters. After your included breakfast the following morning, meet your guides right at the hotel. Pricing is based on double occupancy. The amount listed is the starting price.

Accommodations: Friday Harbor House

Price Per Person: $360

Welcome to the San Juan Islands

Meet your guides at our first hotel in the quaint seaside town of Friday Harbor. We’ll kick things off with a bike fitting and safety review, then pedal to a picnic lunch overlooking Puget Sound. Then it’s time for our first fantastic ride: take a spin around Pear Point and pass driftwood-strewn Jackson Beach. Opt for some extra miles if you’re warmed up and ready to keep riding, or choose to head back to Friday Harbor House. This evening, join your guides for a welcome drink followed by a harbor view dinner at our hotel.

Meals: Lunch / Dinner
Destinations: Pear Point, Cattle Point, Friday Harbor
Accomplished: 27 miles / 44 km, elevation gain: 1,798 feet / 548 meters
Longer Option: 50 miles / 80 km, elevation gain: 3,175 feet / 968 meters
Accommodations: Friday Harbor House
Circumnavigating the Island

Today’s loop ride covers nearly every road on San Juan Island! At Westcott Bay, we’ll stop to learn about the aquaculture of oysters and shuck our own shellfish for a decadent lunch. Afterward, cycle back to Friday Harbor and take a stroll down the docks or peruse the town’s boutiques. Tonight we invite you to dine on your own at one of Friday Harbor’s many charming restaurants—note that dinner reservations are highly recommended.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch
Destinations: Lime Kiln, Westcott Bay
Accomplished: 35 miles / 56 km, elevation gain: 2,995 feet / 913 meters
Longer Option: 59 miles / 95 km, elevation gain: 4,769 feet / 1,454 meters
Accommodations: Friday Harbor House

Tour de Lopez

This morning we move on from San Juan Island and make our way to Lopez Island. With 63 miles of shoreline and just 2,500 year-round residents, this 15-mile landmass is known as the “Friendly Isle.” We’ll cover most of it on a loop ride through forests and rolling farmlands with quiet bays and beaches in our midst; our route follows the annual Tour de Lopez, a celebrated event for local cyclists. We’ll pause for a picnic-style lunch, then visit a glassblower’s workshop to discover artisans at work on the island. This afternoon, hop a ferry to Orcas Island—our last stop in the San Juans. Ride your bike right off the ferry or hop in the van and head directly to our next hotel, which occupies a private bay at the foot of Mount Constitution. Tonight, explore historic Eastsound before joining your guides for dinner at our favorite local spot.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner
Destinations: Lopez Island, Orcas Island
Accomplished: 33 miles / 53 km, elevation gain: 2,095 feet / 638 meters
Longer Option: 51 miles / 82 km, elevation gain: 4,070 feet / 1,241 meters
Accommodations: Rosario Resort or Outlook Inn
Orcas Island

Today we explore peaceful Deer Harbor on the west side of Orcas Island. Sip a steaming cup of coffee in sleepy Eastsound as the quiet village starts to stir for the morning. From there, follow more empty roads with Zen-like views every mile of the way. Upon reaching Deer Harbor, we head back toward Eastsound with a stop for lunch along the way. Spend the afternoon hiking among old-growth fir trees, or have a glass of cold white wine overlooking the secluded bay. Tonight’s dinner is a feast of locally-sourced seafood, accompanied by a historian’s insight on life in the islands.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner
Destinations: Eastsound, Deer Harbor, Rosario
Accomplished: 25 miles / 46 km, elevation gain: 2,232 feet / 680 meters
Longer Option: 33 miles / 53 km, elevation gain: 3,067 feet / 934 meters

Mount Constitution Climb

Ready for some climbing? Start with a warmup ride in nearby Eastsound, then tackle the climb to the top of Mount Constitution, the highest point in the San Juan Islands—on a clear day, you can see all the way to Mount Rainier and the cities of Vancouver and Victoria in British Columbia. Not up for a climb today? Get a lift to the top then enjoy the descent, whizzing by remote harbors all the way down to Doe Bay. We’ll spend our last night on Lummi Island, capped off with a farewell dinner at our historic inn’s award-winning restaurant that honors all things seasonal and local.

Meals: Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner
Destinations: Mount Constitution, Doe Bay, Lummi Island
Accomplished: 27 miles / 43 km, elevation gain: 3,693 feet / 1,126 meters
Longer Option: 35 miles / 56 km, elevation gain: 4,694 feet / 1,431 meters
Accommodations: The Willows Inn
Off the Islands

Say goodbye to Lummi with an indulgent breakfast or take the opportunity for one last early morning ride. Your guides will transfer you back to downtown Seattle.
