Here the land ends as we reach the heel of the Italian boot. This afternoon, take a swim, challenge yourself with some extra miles and stop for a seafood lunch at our friend's restaurant overlooking a small fishing port. Today's ride takes us to the picturesque village of Locorotondo, known for its maze of white-washed streets and considered one of the most beautiful villages in Italy. Stop for lunch at our friend Roberto's local trattoria, then ride through the lush farmland of the Valle d'Itria to our hotel.
