Tour By Day

Welcome to Mallorca

Meet your guides at one of our recommended pre-night properties for a transfer to the historic village of Calvià and the starting point for our first ride. We'll cycle through Mallorca's heartland on remote, stone-walled roads peppered with pine trees and almond groves, then circle back to town for lunch at one of our favorite local restaurants. Afterwards, hop in the van or tack on some extra miles and ride to our first luxury hotel. Spend the afternoon by the pool with a glass of chilled wine or indulge in a treatment at the spa. This evening, we'll toast to our adventures at the bar before a sumptuous dinner made with local ingredients from the island and its pristine coastal waters.

Along the way we'll complete a challenging section of the prestigious Gran Fondo Mallorca 312 before cruising into the beautiful town of Deià, where a celebratory lunch awaits. Today we dial down the intensity—we'll need our energy for tomorrow's spectacular journey into the Tramuntana Mountains. Ride out from the hotel on a coastal road, then descend right into Sóller. From here, choose an easier loop through the small village of Fornalutx past citrus and olive orchards, or tackle the challenging switchbacks of the Col de Sóller, adding a 6% grade over five kilometers. We'll regroup in the charming seaside village of Port de Sóller for a delicious lunch overlooking the marina before zipping along the coast towards the Deià cove, close to our hotel. This evening, your guides can recommend their favorite nearby restaurants for dinner on your own.

Today we will ascend into the dramatic Tramuntana Mountains, where the terrain is captivatingly diverse. From rocky lunar landscapes to magnificent coastal cliffs that plunge into the azure sea, our ride reveals hand-hewn tunnels, mountain lakes, shady forests, and quaint sandstone villages. Climb the Col de Puig Major, the highest point of the week, where we'll pause to absorb the views of the valley below. Our efforts are rewarded with a delicious tapas-style lunch on the main square in Pollença. Afterwards, hop in the van or ride the last few miles to our final hotel of the week. Tonight, our friend Kata opens the door to her family-owned winery. We'll stroll through the vines, glass in hand, then enjoy a lively paella dinner accompanied by classic Spanish guitar.

Today, tackle the epic Cap de Formentor lighthouse ride—one of Mallorca's legendary roads. Our ride begins with an inland spin to the fortified town of Alcúdia, the ancient Roman capital of Mallorca. Our main climb of the day takes us from Port de Pollença to the Colomer Mirador, where we'll steal some magnificent glimpses of craggy rocks and the shimmering blue sea. Arrive at the lighthouse, enjoy a refreshing drink, and take a moment to snap some photos from the lighthouse terrace. Ride all the way back to Port de Pollença, or transfer and arrive in time for lunch at Tolo's, a favorite hangout for amateur and professional cyclists alike—Sir Bradley Wiggins has been spotted here. After lunch, return to the hotel by van or via the coastal road to Alcúdia. Tonight is the show we've all been waiting for as a total solar eclipse takes place over northern Spain for the first time since 1905. At the best viewpoint in the region, your guides have prepared a sol y sombra celebration where the sundowners flow freely. Back at the hotel, we'll share one final gourmet dinner, toasting to our adventures together.
