The Bay of Formentor

Today, tackle the epic Cap de Formentor lighthouse ride—one of Mallorca's legendary roads. Our ride begins with an inland spin to the fortified town of Alcúdia, the ancient Roman capital of Mallorca. Our main climb of the day takes us from Port de Pollença to the Colomer Mirador, where we'll steal some magnificent glimpses of craggy rocks and the shimmering blue sea. Arrive at the lighthouse, enjoy a refreshing drink, and take a moment to snap some photos from the lighthouse terrace. Ride all the way back to Port de Pollença, or transfer and arrive in time for lunch at Tolo's, a favorite hangout for amateur and professional cyclists alike—Sir Bradley Wiggins has been spotted here. After lunch, return to the hotel by van or via the coastal road to Alcúdia. Tonight, our friend Christian opens the doors to his home in the mountains, where he'll show us how to prepare paella negra—a classic Catalan rice dish made with squid ink and aioli. Afterwards, gather around the table to enjoy it for dinner, accompanied by a selection of our favorite Mallorcan wines.

Climb the Col de Puig Major, the highest point of the week where we'll pause to absorb the views of the valley below before an exhilarating 14-kilometer descent into Sóller. After lunch, hop in the van or ride to Deià and check in to our next elegant hotel. Tonight, we'll embark on a culinary journey through the Mediterranean with dinner at our hotel.

From here, choose an easier loop through the small village of Fornalutx past citrus and olive orchards, or tackle the challenging switchbacks of the Col de Sóller, adding a 6% grade over five kilometers. We'll regroup in the charming seaside village of Port de Sóller for a delicious lunch overlooking the marina before zipping along the coast towards the Deià cove, close to our hotel. This evening, your guides can recommend their favorite nearby restaurants for dinner on your own.
