The Perthshire Farmlands

Heading north, we’ll transfer one hour to start our ride from the village of Pitcairngreen. Meandering along the rural farmland, the most traffic we’ll see this morning is from tractors, fellow cyclists, or highland cattle. Learn the meaningful origins of the names for local sites and fauna from our local guides. Arrive in Dunkeld to admire the cathedral and have a bite to eat. Enter into the Highlands on our way to our hotel in Fortingall. Choose to relax in your room, have a pint in the hotel’s authentic bar, or visit the nearby Yew Tree and ancient chapel before heading to a memorable dinner.

Blair Castle and a Wee Bit of Whisky

Today’s ride is a spectacular one that takes us through the rolling hills of Perthshire. Pedal to Blair Castle, the ancestral home of Clan Murray, and marvel at a fascinating collection of artwork, hunting trophies, furniture, and needlework amassed over generations. We’ll also hear about the Atholl Highlanders, a personal army serving the Duke of Atholl (head of Clan Murray) and the only private infantry permitted in all of Europe. After lunch, ride to Pitlochry via the wooded Pass of Killiecrankie, known in equal measure for its history and beauty. We’re treated to a well-informed whisky tasting led by a local friend, followed by a short transfer back to the hotel where we’ll regroup for dinner this evening.

DAY 5

Glorious Greens and Gleneagles

This morning starts out easy with a spin past the sleepy settlement of Dull and into Aberfeldy, a pretty town that’s right on the River Tay. After, our tack changes as we settle in for a climb up General Wade’s Military Road, a narrow and twisty pass running alongside Loch Ness. On the other side is Strathbraan, a storied route that’s been traversed by notable generals, poets, artists, and pirates—all of whom have played a role in Scotland’s folk history. After one more push we reach the valley of Sma’Glen and begin descending gradually through the rolling and manicured farmlands of Strathearn. For our triumphant finish we arrive right to Gleneagles, the iconic five-star estate and our home for our final night in Scotland. After settling into your stately room, we’ll reconvene and toast to a wonderful week of cycling, followed by a celebratory dinner at our hotel.
