A Very Swiss Beginning

Your guides will greet you in Aigle for a transfer to Lake Retaud—which overlooks the Diablerets Glacier—where our journey begins. After lunch and a bike fitting, we'll cruise downhill into the German-speaking region of Switzerland to meet our friend Matty, a local cheese and honey maker who introduces us to the traditions of Swiss farming. After a tasting, get back on the bike and pedal past plenty of Switzerland's emblematic wooden chalets all the way to the car-free resort town of Gstaad. Tonight, we tuck into sophisticated Swiss fare in the hotel's cozy gastronomic restaurant.

We'll catch a gondola to the top for a panoramic trek along the ridgeline and enjoy views of snowcapped peaks stretching across the Saaenland as we hike down from the 6,000-foot summit. Cool off in the alpine waters of Lake Lauenen or bask in the dense pine forests on its bank before lunch at a local mountain restaurant. After, head back to Gstaad with time to browse the shops and boutiques in the town center. Your guides will take you to their favorite restaurant for a traditional meal this evening.
