La Dolce Vita

Meet your guides at the Chiusi train station for a transfer to the tiny village of Montefollonico. Here, an authentic Tuscan welcome awaits with lunch on the scenic terrace of a centuries-old olive mill. After, get fitted on your bike and set off on a ride through the classic Tuscan countryside—you'll feel as though you've traveled back to the 13th century pedaling on the cobbled streets of tiny Montisi and greeting locals as they tend their olive groves. Choose your own adventure with longer or shorter ride options that lead to our first boutique hotel, a converted estate perched on a hill outside Pienza. Relax, settle in, and enjoy a glass of wine. This evening, watch the sun set over the Val d'Orcia as the chef welcomes us with a seasonal dinner served just steps from the hotel's garden.

Farms of the Val d'Orcia

Set off riding through the Val d'Orcia, an area so beautiful that UNESCO designated it a World Heritage Site—you may also recognize it from the movie Gladiator's famous wheat field scene. Marvel at the morning light in Renaissance Pienza, sip a coffee on the main square in San Quirico, and follow in the footsteps of emperors, popes, painters, and peasants as we trace the Via Cassia, an ancient Roman road to Torrenieri. This is the gourmet heart of Tuscany, where Brunello vineyards meet truffle-rich forests. Celebrate the bounty with a homemade lunch and olive oil tasting at our friend Paolo's olive mill, then complete the loop back to the hotel. Tonight we'll visit a local organic farm known for its flavorful raw milk sheep cheeses. Taste their tangy pecorino then sit down for a meal crafted from fresh ingredients grown and produced onsite.

Crossing into Chianti Classico country, we'll pedal through a green and gold landscape to lunch at a family-run winery. Afterwards, ride or transfer to the stunning Relais & Chateaux Borgo San Felice, our home for the next three nights. Get settled, relax by the pool or pamper yourself with a treatment at the spa. Tonight we'll regather and head to a picturesque hamlet for dinner at an inviting, Tuscan osteria.

Pedal past countless estates as we weave our way through forests and vineyards, completing our loop for lunch back at the hotel. Spend a relaxed afternoon at the pool or spa before heading into Siena.
